Eligibility

- This procedure outlines the steps for applying for membership in the Wassamasaw Tribe of Varnertown Indians.
- To be eligible, you must be able to demonstrate full ancestral lineage connection to a progenitor on one of the eight recognized bloodlines of the tribe. (Broad, Burbage, Clark, Dangerfield, Driggers, Huff, Varner, Williams)

Required Documents:

- Completed Application Form: Download and complete the official application form from the tribe's website. Please ensure all sections are filled out accurately and honestly.
- Genealogy Chart: Submit a completed genealogy chart clearly tracing your lineage back to the identified progenitor on one of the eight bloodlines. The chart should include names, birthdates, locations, and relationships between family members.
- Supporting Documentation: Provide original or certified copies of documents that support your lineage claims. These may include:
  - Birth certificates for yourself, parents, grandparents, and all ancestors listed on the genealogy chart.
  - Marriage certificates for relevant ancestors.
  - Death certificates for deceased ancestors.
  - Census records mentioning relevant ancestors.
  - Military records mentioning relevant ancestors.
  - Lineage documents connecting you to a verified member of the Tribe.

Additional Requirements:

- Application Signature: The application form must be signed by you in original ink. Electronic signatures are not accepted.
- Application Fee: Submit the non-refundable application fee of $25 along with your application package. Payment instructions will be provided on the application form.
- Confidentiality: All information submitted with your application is considered confidential and will be handled accordingly.

Important Notes:

- The tribe reserves the right to request additional documentation or clarifications as needed.
- Falsifying information on your application will result in automatic disqualification.
- Membership in the Wassamasaw Tribe of Varnertown Indians is a privilege, not a right. The tribe ultimately determines who meets the criteria for membership based on its historical and cultural identity.
- Application Processing will occur once a quarter by Tribal Council.
